Competitive Travel Grants for Advanced PhD Students

To present their work in
The 2016 ELSC Annual Retreat
January 24-26, Kibbutz Ein Gedi, Israel

ELSC is a multidisciplinary neuroscience center. Our retreat thus covers the whole spectrum of brain research, including computational, molecular, cognitive and systems neuroscience.

The ELSC retreat is an optimal venue for advanced PhD students to present their work and receive expert feedback. The program includes talks by our advanced graduate students, and plenary speakers Fred Wolf, Ilana Witten and Serge Domoulin.

This year, for the first time, ELSC offers competitive scholarships to support the travel and accommodation of 20 outstanding advanced international PhD students to present their work in our retreat.

Candidates are requested to send their CV, a letter of intent, and a recommendation letter to BRAIN@ELSC.huji.ac.il by November 1st.

Awardees will be announced no later than November 15th.
