Open positions for a PhD candidate in the laboratories of Prof. Leon Deouell and Dr. Yoni Pertzov
Open position for a PhD candidate in the laboratories of Prof. Leon Deouell (ELSC, psychology) and Dr. Yoni Pertzov (psychology)

We are looking for a candidate PHD student to work on a project potentially leading to a PhD thesis, within a collaboration with groups from China, through a recently funded grant from the China-Israel Cooperative Scientific Research program.

The project addresses the question of working memory and binding and their relationship to attention and conscious awareness, and will potentially involve behavioral measures, eye-tracking and imaging.

Requirements:

- Interest in cognitive process and their neural basis
- Relevant background in psychology\cognitive sciences\neuroscience
- Computational skills
- High motivation
- Programming skills (advantage)

Interested students should contact

Yoni Pertzov (yoni.pertzov@mail.huji.ac.il) or
Leon Deouell (leon.deouell@mail.huji.ac.il)
And include a CV and a short statement of interest.
