

Master's Thesis Format – Edmond and Lily Safra Center for Brain Sciences

The length of the thesis shall not exceed 60 printed pages, in font size 12, 1.5 line spacing, including figures and tables, but excluding the bibliography and appendices. The thesis should be written in English.

The thesis should be organized as follows:

1. Title page, including:
 - a. Title: "The Hebrew University of Jerusalem – Edmond and Lily Safra Center for Brain Sciences"
 - b. Title of the thesis in Hebrew and in English
 - c. Name of the author and student ID number
 - d. Name of supervisor
 - e. "A thesis submitted in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Science"
 - f. Date of submission – Gregorian and Hebrew
2. Personal page (dedication, etc.)
3. Abstract
4. Table of contents
5. Main body of the thesis – including:
 - a. Scientific background
 - b. Research objectives
 - c. Methods (experimental and/or theoretical)
 - d. Results
 - e. Discussion and conclusions
6. Bibliography
7. Appendices
8. Abstract in Hebrew